Aims: The purpose of this project is to pursue our collaborative exploration of the roots of our European cultural heritage and its transformations through ages as well as the one of the real or fictional countries, utopias of a moment which the knowledge can allow us to leave in search of our own utopia which we would like to be practicable. Le but de ce projet est de poursuivre notre exploration collaborative des racines de notre héritage culturel européen et de ses transformations à travers les âges ainsi que celle des pays réels et ou fictifs, utopies d'un moment dont la connaissance pourra nous permettre de partir à notre tour en quête de notre propre utopie que l'on voudrait réalisable. Lo scopo di questo progetto è di proseguire la nostra esplorazione collaborative delle radici della nostra eredità culturale europea e delle sue trasformazioni attraverso le età così come quella dei paesi reali ed o fittizi, utopie di un momento di cui la conoscenza potrà permetterci di partire alla ricerca della nostra propria utopia che si vorrebbe realizzabile. Work process: It is thus an exploration of the european continent, and beyond it, of the world, in diachrony and in synchrony. Anna, Nathan, Luca and Jennifer will make us share their discoveries, in the course of the episodes written alternately by the children participating in this project. Il s'agit donc d'une exploration du monde de l'Europe, et au-delà du monde, en diachronie et en synchronie. Anna, Nathan, Luca et Jennifer nous feront partager leurs découvertes, au fil des épisodes écrits à tour de rôle par les enfants participant à ce projet. Si tratta dunque, di un'esplorazione del mondo dell'Europa, ed al di là del mondo, in diacronia ed in sincronia. Anna, Natha, Luca e Jennifer ci faranno dividere le loro scoperte, col passare degli episodi scritti a turno da i ragazzi che partecipano a questo progetto. hide

Expected results: We would like european children and teachers
